City Mayor
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

WHEREAS, the proceedings of the Sangguniang Panlungsod should be made more orderly and effective by amending certain provisions of its existing Internal Rules of Procedure (the “Rules”).

WHEREAS, the Rules of the Sanggunian must be responsive to the impact of new technologies on local legislation and should be attuned to reforms already instituted by the previous Sanggunian under the leadership of Hon. Rosette M. Fernando (Vice Mayor and Presiding Officer, 2007-2013) related to records management, paperless deliberations, and open and interactive sessions and hearings.

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Councilor Venus De Castro and unanimously co-sponsored by the rest of the council constituting a quorum, BE IT ORDAINED to approve the Rules of the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Bacoor as appearing hereunder as follows, to wit:

"Be it enacted by the Sangguniang Panlungsod of Bacoor City in session duly assembled THAT:

RULE I
TITLE, POLICY AND APPLICATION

SECTION 1. TITLE. - This Resolution shall be known as the “2013 Internal Rules of the Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Bacoor”.

SECTION 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY. - The goal of the Sanggunian is to enact resolutions and ordinances that will respond to the needs and aspirations of the people of the City of Bacoor based on laws and established rules and procedures, that will govern its conduct and the performance of its roles and functions. The Sanggunian shall adopt a gender fair language in all its proceedings and shall endeavor, as far as practicable, to translate the resolutions or ordinances it pass into Filipino. The Sanggunian shall use technological advances made possible by the internet in gauging the sentiments and ideas of the people of Bacoor on all pending local legislation. The Sanggunian shall also vigorously preserve its independence, pursue a policy of transparency, and perform its

(21) To direct and manage the airing via live streaming over the Internet of all sessions and hearings of the Sanggunian except those done in executive session;

(22) To take charge of, or delegate, preparations for the conduct of town hall style meetings to be conducted periodically by the Sanggunian in the various barangay halls of the City of Bacoor;

(23) To prepare, subject to the approval of the Presiding Officer, the calendar of business/agenda of the Sanggunian; and

(24) To assist the Presiding Officer in interpreting the instant Rules and in explaining its meaning to the members of the Sanggunian when necessary.

SECTION 12. SUPERVISORY POWER. - Subject to the supervision and control of the City Vice Mayor, the Secretary to the Sanggunian shall be responsible for the faithful and proper performance of the official duties of the personnel of the Sanggunian as prescribed by law.

RULE V
THE OTHER OFFICERS OF THE SANGGUNIANG

SECTION 13. THE PRESIDENT PROTEMPORE. Election. - There shall be a President Pro-Tempore who shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the Sanggunian on the inaugural session of the Sanggunian. In case there is a tie in the election of the President Pro-Tempore, the tie shall be broken by the City Vice Mayor. The councilor to be nominated to the post of President Pro-Tempore should be familiar with the provisions of the instant Rules.

SECTION 14. DUTIES AND POWERS. - The duties and powers of the President Pro-Tempore shall be:

a. To assume the duties and powers of the Presiding Officer, including his/her prerogatives under Section 7 (a) to (e) hereof with the exception of Section 7 (f) that may only be exercised by the City Vice Mayor or by the Acting City Vice Mayor, when the former is absent or incapacitated;

b. To preside over the session when, even if present, the Presiding Officer does not preside, subject to Section 7 hereof; and

c. To exercise such powers and functions as the Presiding Officer may validly delegate.

SECTION 15. DISTINCT FROM ACTING CITY VICE-MAYOR. Whenever the City Vice Mayor assumes the position of Acting City Mayor pursuant to the pertinent provisions of Section 46 of the Local Government Code of 1991 or whenever the City Vice Mayor is on leave of absence, the councilor who garnered the most number of votes during the immediately preceding synchronized national elections shall automatically assume the powers and duties of the City Vice Mayor until such unavailability or absence exists. It is, thus, possible that the Acting Vice Mayor and President Pro-Tempore shall be two different persons. Whenever such a situation arises, the Acting Vice Mayor shall discharge the powers and duties of the City Vice Mayor in an acting capacity except the power to preside over the sessions and committee en banc hearings of the Sanggunian which power shall be reserved exclusively upon the President Pro-Tempore or, in the absence or indisposition of the latter, upon the Assistant President Pro-Tempore.

SECTION 16. THE ASSISTANT PRESIDENT PRO-TEMPORE. Election. There shall be an Assistant President Pro-Tempore who shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the Sanggunian on the inaugural session of the Sanggunian. In case there is a tie in the election of the Assistant President Pro-Tempore, the tie shall be broken by the City Vice Mayor. The councilor to be nominated to the position of Assistant President Pro-Tempore should be familiar with the provisions of the Instant Rules.

SECTION 17. DUTIES AND POWERS. - The duties and powers of the Assistant President Pro-Tempore shall be:

a. To assume the duties and powers of the Presiding Officer, including his/her prerogatives under Section 7 (a) to (e) hereof with the exception of Section 7 (f) that may only be exercised by the City Vice Mayor or by the Acting City Vice Mayor, but only when the President Pro-Tempore is absent or incapacitated; and

b. To exercise such powers and functions as the Presiding Officer may validly delegate in the absence or indisposition of the President Pro-Tempore.

SECTION 18. THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Creation and Qualifications.
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

There is hereby created the position of the Sanggunian Sergeant-of-Arms. The qualifications of the person to be appointed to the said position shall be subject to pertinent or analogous civil service rules.

SECTION 19. APPOINTMENT OF THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. The Sergeant-At-Arms shall be appointed by the Presiding Officer upon recommendation of a majority of the members of the Sanggunian who shall serve until sooner removed for cause. Consequently, the nature of the appointment of the Sergeant-At-Arms shall be co-terminus with that of the Presiding Officer unless earlier terminated for cause.

SECTION 20. DUTIES AND POWERS. - The duties and powers of the Sergeant-At-Arms shall be:

a. To be personally present in all sessions of the Sanggunian unless excused by the Presiding Officer or by the Sanggunian Secretary and to be present, personally or through his/her subordinates, in all meetings of the committees;

b. To strictly enforce the rules relating to admission to the Session Hall, the galleries, corridors, and premises of the Sanggunian offices;

c. To be responsible for the faithful and proper behavior and performance of employees under him/her;

d. To execute the orders of the Sanggunian and serve all processes issued by authority thereof or by the Presiding Officer;

e. To be responsible for the security and maintenance of order during the session of the Sanggunian under the direction of the Presiding Officer, during the meeting of any of the committees or subcommittees under the direction of the Chairperson thereof and in the antechamber, corridors and offices of the Sanggunian, whether in session or not, under the direction of the Presiding Officer or of the Sanggunian Secretary; and during the period between the final adjournment of one Council and the organization of the next, under the direction of the Secretary to the Sanggunian;

f. To be responsible for the personal safety of the members while in the Sanggunian premises or, as the Presiding Officer may direct, in any other place; and

Section 21. THE MACE. - The Mace shall be the symbol of the authority of the Sanggunian and shall be displayed at the Presiding Officer’s rostrum when the Sanggunian is in session. The Mace shall serve as the warrant for the Sergeant-At-Arms in enforcing order in the Sanggunian. The design of the Mace shall be subject to the approval of a majority of the members of the Sanggunian in the form of an ordinance duly passed for the said purpose.

The mace is an essential part of the regalia of the Sanggunian. Without it, the Sanggunian shall not be considered to be properly constituted. When the Sanggunian is in session, the mace is displayed at the Presiding Officer’s rostrum. Otherwise, it is kept under the custody of the Sanggunian Secretary.

The Sergeant-At-Arms is charged with the use of the Mace when necessary to preserve order. When the occasion calls for it, or when there is disorder in the session hall, he shall lift the mace from its pedestal and present it before an unruly member in order to restore order or quell boisterous behavior in the Chamber.

RULE VI
THE COMMITTEES

SECTION 22. STANDING COMMITTEES. - The Sanggunian shall have the following standing committees organized, each composed of three (3) members headed by a Chairperson and assisted by a Vice-Chairperson provided that the presence of two (2) councilors during meetings and hearings shall constitute a quorum to conduct business.

The composition of each committee shall be decided upon by the members of the Sanggunian in a caucus called for that purpose at least five working days before the first official session of the council. If the members cannot agree upon themselves as to who should chair a particular committee, the Presiding Officer shall resolve the impasse or tie.

The “equity of the incumbent” rule shall be applied in the selection of committee chairpersons such that any incumbent councilor who presently chairs a committee shall be given preference over those who are newly elected. Provided, that the said rule is not mandatory and may be relaxed depending on the agreement of the members of the Sanggunian.

The Chairperson and members of the different Sanggunian Committees shall take their oath collectively in case the committee has been constituted at the same time before the Presiding Officer immediately after being voted. If the Chairperson of a particular committee comes from District 1 of the City, the Vice-Chairperson of the committee should come from District 2 and vice-versa unless otherwise agreed upon by the members of the Sanggunian.

In addition, meetings and public hearings shall be open to the public subject to reasonable regulations in the interest of security, order, and the safety of persons in attendance.

SECTION 30. RELATED MEASURES. - The committee, as far as practicable, shall schedule proposed ordinances, resolutions or petitions of similar or related subject matter for the same meeting or hearing.
SECTION 31. COMMITTEE REPORTS AND ORDERS. - Committee reports or orders on any proposed ordinance, resolution, speech, message, memorial or petition shall be considered in formal meetings. A committee report, once approved, must be signed by a majority of the members of the committee. When a quorum is present, a majority of those present may act on a committee report. The signatures of the majority of the members of the committee on the report may, thereafter, be secured. Once a committee report is approved, the report and the corresponding measure it covers shall no longer be subject to any change, amendment or alteration, except to corrections of typographical errors.

SECTION 32. OBJECTIONS TO COMMITTEE REPORT. - When a committee submits a report, a member thereof shall be presumed to have concurred with the report and shall be precluded from opposing the same during plenary debate unless he/she files his/her objections and/or dissenting vote with the Secretary to the Sanggunian in writing within five (5) calendar days from the inclusion thereof in the Order of Business, or he/she is allowed to do so by the Vice Mayor upon satisfactory explanation in writing made by the Member within the same period.

SECTION 33. REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES. - The Committee on Rules may meet at any time and report on any matter within its jurisdiction. The consideration of its reports shall always be in order provided the report has been placed in the agenda like the other items.

SECTION 34. TREATMENT OF RESOURCE PERSONS DURING COMMITTEE HEARINGS. - The Sanggunian shall respect the rights of, and give due courtesy and deference to, all persons invited as resource speakers during committee hearings. In this regard, members of the council as well as the persons invited to committee hearings shall not be allowed to use rude, vulgar, or inappropriate language or gestures.

SECTION 35. EN BANC COMMITTEE HEARINGS. - When public welfare so demands, such as in cases of public emergencies, all the members may conduct a committee hearing en banc right after its regular session. Such en banc committee hearings shall be presided over by the Presiding Officer and may be called even without the 3-day notice rule mentioned in Section 29 hereof. In no case, however, shall such en banc committee hearings be conducted...
during a regular session.

SECTION 36. PROHIBITION AGAINST CITY VICE MAYOR TO ATTEND COMMITTEE HEARINGS. -- The City Vice Mayor is expressly prohibited to attend committee hearings. Such prohibition, however, shall not apply in the case of en banc committee hearings, which shall be presided over by the City Vice Mayor in his/her capacity as Presiding Officer, but not when he/she is carrying out the powers and duties of the City Mayor in an acting capacity.

RULE VII
THE SESSION

SECTION 37. COMMENCEMENT OF DAILY SESSIONS. - Unless the Sanggunian provides otherwise, the session shall commence promptly at ten o’clock in the morning every Monday at the Session Hall of the Sangguniang Panlungsod.

SECTION 38. NO SESSIONS DURING HOLIDAYS; CHRISTMAS BREAK.— No regular session shall be held on official non-working holidays. The Sanggunian shall not have any regular session—except special sessions—after the first week of December until the first week of January. Session shall resume on the second Monday of January. This rule, however, shall not apply in cases of public emergencies or whenever an important matter requiring the attention of the Sanggunian arises.

SECTION 39. CALL TO ORDER. - The Presiding Officer shall open the session by calling the Sanggunian to order to be followed by an invocation by any member designated by the Presiding Officer and then by the singing of the National Anthem.

SECTION 40. ATTENDANCE/ TARDINESS. - Every member shall be present in all the sessions of the Sanggunian unless necessarily prevented from doing so by sickness or other unavoidable circumstances duly reported to the Sanggunian, through the Secretary to the Sanggunian. Members who are on official business outside Bacoor City or the country as evidenced by Travel Orders duly issued and approved by the City Mayor are authorized to collect per diems for paid sessions held while said members are on official travel. Upon their return, they are required to submit a written report to the Sanggunian regarding the accomplishment of the purpose for which the travel orders were granted.

Each member shall be given a grace period of twenty (20) minutes at the start of the session to be present. A member who arrives beyond the said grace period shall be required to pay Five Hundred Pesos (P500.00) before the end of the session where he/she was late and shall be marked as “Late” in the official journal for the said session. The said amount shall be collected by the Presiding Officer and kept by the Office of the City Vice Mayor.

SECTION 41. VOTING. Every member present in the session shall vote on every question put unless he/she inhibits himself/herself on account of personal or pecuniary interest therein. Unless provided otherwise by these Rules, every question put shall be resolved by a majority vote of the members present there being a quorum. If the City Government shall borrow money, incur obligation or guarantee indebtedness, a vote of majority of all the members is required except those outside the country and those outside the City of Bacoor on official business.

SECTION 42. E-VOTING DURING PUBLIC CALAMITIES. The rules on voting specified in Section 42 hereof shall be relaxed during the occurrence of public calamities within the City of Bacoor which will prevent members of the Sanggunian to physically attend a special or regular session called for the purpose of declaring the existence of a state of calamity within the City and cast their votes personally. During or immediately after the occurrence of such a public calamity, members of the Sanggunian may be allowed to cast their votes through text messages or emails sent to the Presiding Officer or to the Sanggunian Secretary. Provided, that the members who cast their votes via text message or email shall confirm his/her vote immediately following the occurrence of such public calamities.

SECTION 43. SESSIONS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC: EXCEPTIONS. - All sessions shall be open to the public unless an Executive Session is ordered by a majority vote of the members present, there being a quorum, in the interest or for reasons of security, decency or morality. No two sessions, regular or special, may be held in a single day. A loudspeaker system shall also be placed outside the Session Hall in order to apprise the members of the public who can no longer be accommodated within the Session Hall of the deliberations of the council.
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

SECTION 44. LIVE STREAMING OF REGULAR SESSIONS AND COMMITTEE HEARINGS: EXCEPTIONS. - All regular sessions and committee hearings of the Sanggunian shall be video recorded and aired via live streaming on the Sanggunian website unless an Executive Session is ordered by a majority vote or when technical difficulties render such video recording or live streaming impossible or impractical.

SECTION 45. EXECUTIVE SESSION. - When the Sanggunian decides to hold an executive session, the Presiding Officer shall direct the galleries and hallways to be cleared and all doors closed.

SECTION 46. PERSONS ALLOWED IN EXECUTIVE SESSION. - Only the Secretary to the Sanggunian, and other persons specifically authorized by the Sanggunian shall be admitted to the executive session and they shall preserve the secrecy of whatever may be read or said at the session.

SECTION 47. CONFIDENTIAL DOCUMENTS. - When, by request of the Sanggunian, confidential documents or papers marked as such are transmitted to it by the City Mayor or a head of department and require consideration in an executive session, their existence or contents shall not be revealed without leave of the Sanggunian.

SECTION 48. SUSPENSION AND ADJOURNMENT OF SESSION. - Sessions shall not be adjourned except by direction of the Sanggunian, but the Presiding Officer may, in his/her discretion, declare at any time a suspension or recess of short interval.

SECTION 49. SPECIAL SESSION. - When public interest so requires, the Sanggunian, if not in session, shall, upon request of any of its members or of the City Mayor convene on such date and time as stated in an appropriate Executive Order issued for the purpose, to deliberate on and pass the required resolution or ordinance. For this purpose, a written notice to the members shall be served personally at the member’s usual place of residence at least twenty-four hours before the special session is held. Unless otherwise concurred in by two-thirds vote of the members present, there being a quorum, no other matters may be considered at a special session except those stated in the notice.

SECTION 50. OPENING AND ADJOURNMENT ENTERED IN JOURNAL. - The exact hour of opening and adjournment of a session shall be

RULE VIII
ROLL CALL AND QUORUM

SECTION 51. ROLL CALL. - Upon every roll call, the names of members shall be called alphabetically by surnames, except when two or more have the same surname, in which case the full name shall be called. If there are two members with the same name and surname, their legislative districts shall be added. Any member who, at the time the Secretary to the Sanggunian calls the roll is not inside the Session Hall shall be marked "Absent" and even if he/she appears after the roll call, he/she shall not be discharged until he/she states and explains the justifiable reason/s for his/her discharge. In this case, the Presiding Officer shall, at his/her discretion, order his/her discharge and direct the Secretary to the Sanggunian to change his/her status from "Absent" to "Present" with an indication that he/she is "Late". In case a member is late due to his/her attendance to an official business, he/she shall be marked as "Late/Official Business". In case a member is late due to a personal emergency, he/she shall be marked as "Late/Personal Emergency".

No member shall be allowed by the Presiding Officer to leave the Session Hall without the express consent of the Presiding Officer. The time when a member leaves the Session Hall, as well as the time when he/she returns, shall be reported in the Journal and mentioned on the attendance report of the Sanggunian Secretary.

SECTION 52. ATTENDANCE REPORTS. Publication.-- The Sanggunian Secretary shall publish a weekly attendance report of all the members of the Sanggunian which shall be posted on the website of the Sangguniang Panlungsod. Such report shall be updated monthly. Within five (5) working days after the close of the last session of the Sanggunian on the month of December, the Sanggunian Secretary shall publish a report summarizing the attendance record of the council members. Such report shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Sanggunian as well as on its website.

SECTION 53. QUORUM. Determination of existence. - A majority of all the members of the Sanggunian who have been elected and qualified shall constitute a quorum to do business. For this purpose, the City Vice Mayor, the ABC President, and the SK Federation President shall be considered members of the Sanggunian in the determination of the existence of a quorum. Thus, a quorum is hereby deemed to exist when eight (8) or more members are present during a regular or special session.

SECTION 54. ABSENCE OF QUORUM. - In the absence of a quorum after the roll call, the members present may compel the attendance of absent members. In all calls of the Sanggunian, the doors shall be closed. Except those whose attendance are excused, the absentees, by order of a majority of those present, shall be sent for and arrested wherever they may be found and conducted to the Session Hall in custody in order to secure their attendance at the session.

The order shall be executed by the Sergeant-At-Arms and by such police officers as the Presiding Officer may designate when necessary. After the presence of the members arrested is secured at the Session Hall, the Presiding Officer shall determine the condition for their discharge. Members who voluntarily appear shall be admitted immediately to the Session Hall. They shall report to the Secretary to the Sanggunian to have their presence recorded.

If there is still no quorum despite the enforcement of the immediately preceding paragraph, no business shall be transacted. The Presiding Officer, upon proper motion duly approved by the members present, shall then declare the session adjourned for lack of quorum.

SECTION 55. AUTOMATIC CALL OF THE SANGGUNIAN. - When the result of the voting on a question shows the absence of a quorum and a member calls the attention of the Sanggunian to this fact, there shall be a call of the Sanggunian to compel attendance of absent members who shall be given the opportunity to vote unless it adjourns. Should a question of quorum be raised during a session, the Presiding Officer shall immediately proceed to call the roll of the members and thereafter announce the results.

If those voting on the question and those who are present but abstain from voting shall together make a majority of the Sanggunian, the Presiding Officer shall declare that a quorum is constituted, and the pending questions shall be resolved, as the majority of those voting shall decide. Thereupon, further procedure...

under the call shall be dispensed with.

SECTION 56. MOTION TO ADJOURN VACATES CALL. - At any time after the roll call is completed, a motion to adjourn shall be in order and, if approved, by a majority of those present, all proceedings under the preceding section shall be vacated.

RULE IX
ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECTION 57. ORDER OF BUSINESS. - The Order of Business of the session shall be:

a) Roll Call;
b) Approval of the Journal of the previous session;
c) First reading and referral to committees of proposed ordinances, resolutions, messages, communications, petitions and memorials;
d) Committee reports;
e) Unfinished business;
f) Business for the day;
g) Proposed ordinances for third reading;
h) Other matters;
i) Privilege Hour/Question Hour
j) Announcements; and
k) Adjournment.

RULE X
Calendar

SECTION 58. PARTS OF CALENDAR. - The calendar shall consist of:

(a) Unfinished Business. - Refers to business being considered by the Sanggunian at the time of its last adjournment. Its consideration shall be resumed until it is disposed of. This may also include the second reading of an ordinance or resolution, or the continuance of a debate on a matter on second reading. Thereafter, the Presiding Officer shall call for the business for the day.

(b) Business for the Day. - These are proposed ordinances, resolutions and other measures set on the calendar for the day by the Sanggunian Secretary. They shall be considered in the order in which they are listed in the calendar and after the business mentioned in the preceding paragraph.
(c) Proposed Ordinances. - Proposed Ordinances shall be submitted to a final vote of those in favor and opposed as provided for in Section 57 of these Rules after copies thereof in final form have been distributed to the members of the Sanggunian at least three days prior to their passage, except when the City Mayor certifies to the necessity of their immediate enactment to meet a public calamity or emergency.

SECTION 59. DISTRIBUTION OF CALENDAR. - The Calendar shall be distributed at least a day before a regular or special session unless there is no addition to the one previously distributed, in which case a note to this effect on the order of business shall be sufficient. The Sanggunian Secretary shall take charge of such distribution.

The calendar, and its documentary attachments, shall be downloaded on the iPad, laptop, or smartphone issued by the Sanggunian to the members. The members shall be duty-bound to temporarily surrender the said gadgets to the Sanggunian Secretary not later than two o’clock in the afternoon (2:00 pm) of the Thursday prior to the next regular session to enable the Sanggunian Secretariat to make the said downloads. The Sanggunian Secretariat shall then return the said gadgets to the member concerned, or through their legislative staff, upon completion of the download.

The Sanggunian Secretariat shall not print a calendar and its documentary attachments, except the one to be kept at the Records Section of the Sanggunian, in order to minimize the use of paper and the use of electricity. Sanggunian members who fail to surrender the gadgets issued to them within the period specified above shall be responsible on how to participate during the deliberations without the said calendar.

RULE XI
PRIVILEGE HOUR

SECTION 60. PRIVILEGE HOUR. - After the reading of the announcements to be included in the order of business, there shall be a privilege hour. The entire length of the privilege hour shall not extend beyond one (1) hour in order to allow the Sanggunian to focus on other matters and prevent filibustering or grandstanding.

ten (10) minutes on any matter of general interest. If more than one member desires to make use of this privilege, the first to apply, either in writing to the office of the Secretary to the Sanggunian or verbally in open session, shall be given precedence. The other members may interpellate any member who avails of the privilege hour at the end of his/her speech. Provided that the period of interpellation shall not exceed ten minutes to give time to the other speaker/s. If, after a member has finished, sufficient time is left of the hour, the second member who has asked to speak may do so, and so on successively until the full hour is consumed. If requests to make use of the one-hour privilege remain recorded at the expiration of the hour, they shall be recorded in the same order for the next session.

SECTION 61. REFERRAL. - On motion of any member after the privilege hour, the privilege speech may be referred to the appropriate Committee for the approval of the necessary resolution or ordinance. Once the motion to refer has been approved, it cannot be discussed any further on the floor. If the member who availed of the privilege hour makes a motion for the approval of a resolution after his speech, the Sanggunian may suspend its rules and approve the said motion.

RULE XII QUESTION HOUR;
APPEARANCE OF HEAD OF DEPARTMENT

SECTION 62. APPEARANCE UPON INITIATIVE OF DEPARTMENT HEAD. - When a department head desires to appear before the Sanggunian on any matter pertaining to his/her department, he/she may, with the consent of the City Mayor, notify the Sanggunian through the Presiding Officer who, with the concurrence of the Sanggunian, may set the date and hour for his/her appearance.

SECTION 63. APPEARANCE UPON REQUEST OF THE SANGGUNIANG. - A department head or any person may by majority vote of the members present there being a quorum, be requested to appear before the Sanggunian and be heard by it on any matter pertaining to his/her department or on any issue of general interest. The request shall state specifically the questions to be answered and the date and hour for his/her appearance. His/her appearance shall be scheduled at least three days from receipt of the request. The Sanggunian may also conduct inquiries in aid of legislation on any... matter of general interest in accordance with these Rules and/or Rules of Procedure it may adopt governing the conduct of said inquiries.

The order of business shall specify the subject of the question, the Department Head requested to answer them and the proponent thereof.

SECTION 64. DAY OF APPEARANCE. - The appearance of Department Heads shall be scheduled on any session and on such other day as may be determined by the Presiding Officer or a majority of the members of the Sanggunian after the reading of the Order of Business. The Department Head may answer the questions directed to him/her either orally or in writing. Interpellations of members shall not be limited to the written questions but may cover matters related thereto. Such interpellations shall conform to the standards for questions herein provided. The questions and answers shall be recorded in the Journal.

SECTION 65. APPEARANCE IN EXECUTIVE SESSION. The appearance of a Department Head shall be conducted in an executive session when public interest requires and the City Mayor so states in writing.

SECTION 66. QUESTIONS. - Written questions shall be submitted to the Presiding Officer in triplicate. Questions of an urgent nature or those relating to current issues shall be given priority. The Presiding Officer may also ask questions to any resource person invited during a committee hearing en banc but not during a regular session. However, the Presiding Officer is empowered to simplify a question or propounded to a resource person or to assist a resource person to be responsive to a propounded question. The Presiding Officer may also be allowed to ask questions to a resource person during regular or special sessions but only if (a) a majority of the councilors present voted in favor of allowing the Presiding Officer to ask his/her questions, and (b) the privilege shall only be exercised by the Presiding Officer after all the members are finished asking their questions.

The proponent may withdraw questions. Provided, that no answer has yet been made. The withdrawal shall be in writing, addressed to the Presiding Officer, and submitted before the day of the scheduled appearance. The reason/s for the withdrawal of the questions shall be stated in the letter of withdrawal.
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

SECTION 67. STANDARDS SET FOR QUESTIONS. - Questions shall be based on facts, asked to obtain information or press for action. No questions shall:

(a) Contain arguments;
(b) Suggest its own answer;
(c) Include offensive or impolite language or expressions;
(d) Pertain to sub judice matters;
(e) Seek an opinion on a question of law, except if the resource person is a lawyer;
(f) Include names or statements other than what is strictly necessary to make the question intelligible;
(g) Relate to matters falling directly under the responsibility of another Department Head;
(h) Refer to an item of the agenda of the current month’s session or to proceedings of a committee not yet reported, or suggest amendments to proposed ordinances or resolutions; or
(i) Repeat a question previously asked and answered.

SECTION 68. FORM OF QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. - In form, questions and answers of excessive length are not in order and shall not be allowed.

SECTION 69. WRITTEN QUESTIONS NOT CONFORMING TO STANDARDS. If the question does not conform with the foregoing standards, the Presiding Officer may return the question to the member concerned and the latter may modify or restate the question to make it conform with the said standards or appeal the action of the Presiding Officer to the Sanggunian. Said appeal shall be resolved like all other appeals from the ruling of the Presiding Officer.

SECTION 70. ORDER AND DISPOSITION OF QUESTIONS. The Presiding Officer shall review the written questions and decide the order in which the same shall be asked. The Presiding Officer shall verbally inform the members on the order of questioning before the start of any deliberation on a particular matter at hand. No new question shall be asked unless a previous question has already been answered to the satisfaction of the proponent.

The failure of a resource person to intelligibly answer a question shall not entitle the proponent to harangue such person.
Republic of the Philippines
CITY OF BACOOR
Province of Cavite

OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

During the appearance of the Department Head, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Secretary to the Sanggunian to read the questions according to their precedence, the name of the proponent and the Department Head to whom the question is directed.

SECTION 71. STANDARDS SET FOR ANSWER. - Answers shall immediately relate to the questions propounded, without need for discussing general policies or programs. They shall be concise and responsive, and shall avoid argumentation. They shall conform to the standards set for questions, where these are applicable. Moreover, the answers shall be couched in polite and inoffensive language befitting an elected representative of the people of the City of Bacoor.

SECTION 72. INTERPELLATIONS AND COMMENTS OF PROPONENTS OF ORIGINAL QUESTIONS. - At the end of each question hour, it shall be in order for any proponent of the original questions to interpellate the Department Head concerned and make comments, observations and statements relative to the answers given and to be interpellated by the Department Head concerned. Immediately thereafter, the Department Head concerned may make a reply. The interpellations and comments of the proponent and the reply of the Department Head shall be subject to the ten-minute rule.

A buzzer or bell shall be activated by the Sanggunian Secretary to inform a councilor that his/her ten-minute period of questioning has already expired.

No interpellation from other members shall be allowed on the reply of the Department Head. Only the proponent of the question shall have the right to debate thereon with the Department Head. The order of interpellations and comments shall be in the same order the original questions were asked.

RULE XIII
PROPOSED ORDINANCES, RESOLUTIONS, MESSAGES, MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS

SECTION 73. FILING OF PROPOSED ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS. Every Filipino citizen may file a proposed ordinance.

or resolution with the Sanggunian by submitting at least (3) duly signed copies thereof with the Sanggunian Panlunsod.

Proposed ordinances and resolutions shall be signed by their author or authors and shall be filed with the Secretary to the Sanggunian or with the Records Officer of the Sanggunian, who shall assign a control number for each pursuant to the Records Management Policy Manual of the Sanggunian. A proposed ordinance or joint resolution shall embrace only one subject, which shall be expressed in the title thereof. The proponent or author of a proposed ordinance or resolution shall be considered as member of the committee, upon which the proposed measure falls but shall not be allowed to vote in committee hearing or deliberation. The Presiding Officer is not precluded from authoring a resolution or ordinance or from attending a committee hearing for the resolution/ordinance that he/she authored.

SECTION 74. FIRST READING. - The Secretary to the Sanggunian shall report all proposed ordinances and resolutions to the Sanggunian for first reading within three days from receipt thereof copy furnished the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances. During the first reading, the principal author may propose the inclusion of additional authors by submitting a list of such authors to the Secretary to the Sanggunian.

SECTION 75. REFERRAL TO COMMITTEE; COMMITTEE HEARING OR MEETING - The Sanggunian Secretary shall make the first reading. The first reading shall only be by number, title and author, followed by referral to the appropriate committee/s by the Presiding Officer.

The Committee chairperson/s concerned shall then inform the Sanggunian Secretary as soon as the referral was made with regard the schedule of the committee/public hearing or of the committee meeting. The Secretary shall inform the committee chairperson concerned if the session hall or conference rooms of the Sanggunian are available on the proposed schedule of committee/public hearing. If no venue is available, an alternative schedule and venue shall be chosen by the committee chairperson concerned and shall be entered into the records of the session.

SECTION 76. CONSOLIDATION OR SUBSTITUTION. - A consolidated or substitute proposed ordinance or resolution by a committee shall have as authors the first two authors of the original proposed ordinance or resolution in the order in which their names appear in the latter and according to their dates of filing. The rest of the authors shall thereafter be enumerated in the same order.

SECTION 77. COMMITTEE REPORT. - No ordinance or resolution shall be considered on second reading in any regular session unless the proper committee to which it was referred has reported it out, or unless the City Mayor has certified it as urgent. The said report should be signed by all the members of the committee concerned and should indicate whether the said member/s are in favor of, or objects to the report.

The members of the committee who are not in favor of the majority position reflected in the committee report shall have the option of submitting a dissenting committee report.

SECTION 78. PERIOD TO REPORT. - The committee shall submit a report on the proposed ordinance or resolution within thirty (30) days after it is referred to it, except as herein otherwise provided. All committee reports shall be submitted to the Records Officer of the Sanggunian at least two (2) working days before the next regular session. The Records Officer shall then register and download the said report in the Sanggunian Information System.

SECTION 79. ORDINANCE OR RESOLUTION FAVORABLY REPORTED. - If the committee report on a proposed ordinance or resolution is favorable, the proposed ordinance or resolution shall be forwarded to the Sanggunian Secretary who shall then review and calendar the proposed ordinance or resolution for second reading.

SECTION 80. ORDINANCE OR RESOLUTION UNFAVORABLY REPORTED. - If the committee report on a proposed ordinance or resolution is unfavorable, the proposed ordinance or resolution shall be laid on the table for appropriate action by the Sanggunian or by its author/s. The author or authors shall be notified of the action, stating the reason or reasons thereof.

SECTION 81. DISCHARGE OF COMMITTEE ON PROPOSED ORDINANCES NOT REPORTED. - The author/s of a proposed ordinance or resolution may present to the Secretary to the Sanggunian a motion in writing to discharge a committee from the consideration of a proposed ordinance which has been referred to it over thirty days prior thereto and has not been returned to the Sanggunian. The motion may be placed in the custody of the Secretary to the Sanggunian who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of members. A signature may be withdrawn by a member in writing at any time before the motion is entered in the Journal. When one-fifth of all the members sign the motion, it shall be included in the calendar and reported at the next following session of the Sanggunian.

SECTION 82. CONSIDERATION OF MOTION TO DISCHARGE. - After the privilege hour, any member who has signed a motion to discharge may demand the consideration thereof. After not more than thirty minutes of debate, the Sanggunian shall proceed to vote on the motion.

If the motion adopted refers to a proposed ordinance or resolution, a motion shall be in order to proceed to the immediate consideration of such proposed ordinance or resolution; and, if such motion prevails, the Sanggunian en banc shall immediately vote on whether to approve or disapprove the proposed ordinance or resolution.

After a motion to discharge is lost, it shall not be in order to entertain during the same session year any other motion to discharge the same committee or any other committee from the consideration of the same proposed ordinance or resolution of substantially the same subject matter. After the Sanggunian acts on the motion to discharge, all other motions to discharge dealing on proposed ordinance or resolution of similar subject matter which are pending in the calendar of business shall be stricken therefrom and shall not be acted upon during the remainder of the same session year.

SECTION 83. URGENT ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS. - On motion by the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances, the Sanggunian may declare urgent a proposed ordinance or joint resolution and consider it in accordance with a timetable.

The timetable shall be prepared by the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances, fixing the date when the proposed ordinance or resolution must be reported by the committee concerned, the number of days or hours to be allotted to the consideration of the proposed ordinance or resolution on second reading, and the date and hour of debate must be concluded and final vote taken.

SECTION 84. SECOND READING AND DEBATE. - On second reading of a proposed ordinance it shall be read in full with the amendments proposed by the committee, if any, unless copies thereof are distributed or if a digital copy thereof is flashed by the Sanggunian Secretary on a overhead projector displayed in the Session Hall and such reading is dispensed with. Thereafter, the proposed ordinance shall be subject to debate and pertinent motions.

SECTION 85. START/CONDUIT OF DEBATE. - All debates shall begin once the Presiding Officer formally opens the floor for debate. The principal author, or the chairperson of the committee that recommended the approval of the proposed resolution or ordinance, shall be given five minutes to render his/her sponsorship speech. The sponsoring councilor shall then be subjected to interpellation by any of the members of the Sanggunian. Each member shall only be given three (3) minutes to interpellate the sponsoring councilor. Additional questions may only be asked with the permission of the Presiding Officer. The sponsoring councilor, if he/she so pleases, may refer the answering of the various questions to a member of the committee that reported out the proposed measure. Each member shall then be allowed to speak for not more than five (5) minutes in support of, or against, the proposed measure.

SECTION 86. MOTION TO CLOSE DEBATE. - In the discussion of any measure, a motion to close debate shall be in order after three speeches for and two against, or after only one speech for and none entered against.

During the last fifteen days before adjournment, a motion to close debate shall be in order after two speeches for and one against, or after only one speech for and none entered against.

SECTION 87. CLOSURE. - When several members register or signify their intention to speak on the matter under consideration and when the matter is sufficiently and thoroughly discussed by the member speaking, the Presiding Officer may, motu proprio or upon motion of a member, order that a member having the floor desist from speaking further so that other members may not be deprived of their opportunity to speak. The member reporting a measure may open and close the debate, if the debate extends beyond one session.

without debate being closed, he/she shall be entitled to an additional thirty minutes to close.

SECTION 88. AMENDMENTS. - After the close of debate, the Sanggunian shall proceed to the consideration of committee amendments subject to the five-minute rule. A member who desires to speak on an amendment shall also have five minutes.

The five-minute rule shall apply, likewise, in the consideration of an amendment to an amendment, or of an amendment by substitution.

The Sanggunian Secretary shall, as far as practicable, show the proposed amendments on the overhead projector displayed in the Session Hall for the consideration of the members. Once the Sanggunian Secretary completes the proposed amendment, the Presiding Officer shall require the body to vote on the amendment. After the amendment is approved or disapproved, the body shall proceed to the next provision/s of the pending resolution or ordinance until the revision thereof on second reading is complete.

SECTION 89. APPROVAL OF PROPOSED ORDINANCE ON SECOND READING. - After the amendments are acted upon, the proposed ordinance shall be voted on second reading.

SECTION 90. THIRD READING. - A proposed ordinance approved on second reading shall be returned to the Secretary to the Sanggunian for finalization and then forwarded to the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances for review and thereafter included in the calendar of proposed ordinance or resolution for third reading.

No proposed ordinance shall be approved unless it passes three readings on separate days, and printed copies thereof in its final form are distributed to the members three days before its passage, except (1) when the City Mayor certified to the necessity of its immediate enactment to meet a public calamity or emergency, or (2) if a majority of the members of the Sanggunian voted in favor of dispensing the above-mentioned rule and expedite the proceedings.

On the third reading of a proposed ordinance, no amendment thereto shall be allowed. The vote thereon shall be taken immediately, and the votes of in favor and opposed entered in the Journal.

No proposed ordinance requiring appropriation of public funds shall be passed without a Certification duly issued for the purpose by the City Treasurer certifying that the corresponding funds therefor are available. In the case of the proposed Annual Budget of the City Government, all the departments or offices shall be required to submit to the Sanggunian their respective Accomplishment Report for the preceding year containing, among others, their accomplishments versus their targets and a statement of their expenditures versus their approved budgets before passage of the same shall be allowed.

The failure of a department or unit of the City Government to submit such an Accomplishment Report, or the evident failure of such department or unit to justify the proposed expense, may be used as basis for the disapproval or reduction of the proposed Annual Budget.

SECTION 91. ACTION BY THE CITY MAYOR. - Every proposed ordinance passed by Sanggunian shall, before it is deemed approved, be presented to the City Mayor. If he approves the same, he shall sign it. Otherwise, he shall veto it and return the same with his objections to the Sanggunian within ten (10) days after receipt thereof. Otherwise, it shall be deemed approved as if he had signed it.

SECTION 92. PROCEDURE ON VETOED ORDINANCES. - If the City Mayor vetoes an ordinance or any part thereof, the Sanggunian shall record the objections of the City Mayor in the Journal and shall proceed to reconsider the proposed ordinance or item vetoed.

During reconsideration, the Sanggunian shall proceed to vote by those in favor or opposed with the names of the members voting recorded in the Journal. If the proposed ordinance or vetoed item is passed by a vote of two-thirds of all members of the Sanggunian, such proposed ordinance or item shall be deemed approved despite the City Mayor’s veto.

SECTION 93. PROCEDURE FOR RESOLUTION. - Resolutions shall be subject to the same procedure as proposed ordinances regarding Introduction, reference to the appropriate committee and consideration: Provided: that the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances may, for reasons of urgency, calendar for immediate consideration any resolution.

SECTION 94. MESSAGES. - Messages from the City Mayor shall be read in full before the Sanggunian, and those in which any recommendations are made shall be referred to the proper committees.

SECTION 95. MEMORIALS AND PETITIONS. - Communications from heads of department, memorials and petitions shall be reported to the Sanggunian and, if necessary, referred to the proper committees.

RULE XIV
DECORUM AND DEBATE

SECTION 96. MANNER OF ADDRESSING THE CHAIR. When a member desires to speak, he/she shall raise his/her hand for recognition who shall then address the chair to recognize the member concerned. When he/she is recognized, he shall then rise and respectfully address the Chair “Mr. President” or “Madam President”.

SECTION 97. RECOGNITION OF MEMBER. - When two or more members rise at the same time, the Presiding Officer shall recognize the member who is to speak first. The Presiding Officer, at his/her discretion, may or may not recognize any member who came in late for the session without any justifiable reason or who is not properly attired in accordance with these Rules.

SECTION 98. TIME LIMIT. - No member shall speak more than TEN minutes in debate on any question nor more than once on any question without leave of the Sanggunian.

SECTION 99. DECORUM. - The member who has the floor shall confine himself/herself to the question under debate, avoiding personalities in all cases. He/She shall refrain from indecorous words or acts in all his/her remarks and speeches. If he/she persists, the Presiding Officer shall order him/her to desist from speaking and direct the Sergeant-At-Arms to escort the member concerned outside the Session Hall. Until he/she conducts himself/herself...
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

according to the Rules, he/she will not be allowed to go inside the Session Hall. The Presiding Officer may motu proprio, or as the Sanggunian may direct, order such unparliamentary statements, remarks or words stricken off the record.

If a member is called to order by another for words spoken in debate, the latter shall indicate the words excepted to. The Secretary to the Sanggunian shall note and read aloud said words. However, the member called to order shall not be held to answer nor be subject to censure by the Sanggunian if further debate or other business intervenes.

SECTION 100. CONDUCT DURING SESSIONS. - During the session, all the members of the Sanggunian shall be in proper attire and observe decorum. The proper attire shall be either short-sleeved barong, coat and tie or long sleeves polo shirt with tie for men, and Barong Filipina or formal dress for women members. For sessions outside the Sanggunian building, the use of comfortable attire as long as presentable shall be allowed.

No member shall be near the desk of the Secretary to the Sanggunian during the roll call or the counting of votes.

No member shall pass between the Chair and another member who has the floor.

Except when the Presiding Officer is addressing the Sanggunian or putting a question, any member shall, with prior consent of the Presiding Officer, be allowed to stand to confer with any or other members of the Sanggunian or to go out of the Session Hall for personal reasons and urgent matters. The use of cellular phones inside the Session Hall is absolutely prohibited. The reading of newspapers and magazines inside the Session Hall is not also allowed except when it is connected to or is the subject matter of the deliberation.

The Presiding Officer shall have the power to confiscate any cellular phone or gadget that creates any noise while the session is ongoing or impose a fine of Five Hundred Pesos (PhP 500.00) against its owner. The said fine shall be collected by the Sergeant-At-Arms and shall be turned over to the Office of the Vice Mayor.

SECTION 101. FIREARM, DRINKING ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES
OFFICE OF THE SANGGUNIANG PANLUNGSOD

AND SMOKING PROHIBITED. - Carrying of firearms, drinking of alcoholic beverages, or smoking by any member or person is absolutely prohibited within and inside the Session Hall or any other part of the Bacoor City Hall. The Sergeant-At-Arms shall ensure that this is enforced at all times within the Session Hall and its immediate environs including at the offices of the Sanggunian members, the restrooms of the Sanggunian, and its conference rooms. The following penalties shall be imposed against anyone who violates this Rule: (a) the firearm shall be confiscated by the Sergeant-At-Arms and its carrier be required to pay a fine of Five Hundred Pesos (P500.00), (b) the smoker shall be made to put out his cigarette or tobacco and pay a fine of Five Hundred Pesos (P500.00), and (c) the imbiber of alcoholic beverages shall be made to stop drinking and pay a fine of Five Hundred Pesos (P500.00).

RULE XV
VOTING

SECTION 102. MANNER OF VOTING. The Presiding Officer shall say: "All those in favor of (as the question may be), please raise your right hand," and then proceed to count the affirmative votes.

The Presiding Officer shall then say: "All those not in favor of (as the question may be), please raise your right hand," and then proceed to count the negative votes.

If the Presiding Officer doubts the outcome or a division is called for, the Sanggunian shall divide. Those in favor shall first rise and then those against.

The Sanggunian Secretary shall then proceed to read the names of the members who voted affirmatively and negatively into the records of the proceedings while the Sanggunian Secretariat flashes the names of those who voted affirmatively or negatively on the overhead display in the Session Hall. The Presiding Officer shall then state the result to the Body.

Unless otherwise provided by these rules, a majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide the issue. No motion except on the presence of a quorum shall be entertained during voting or any matter.

SECTION 103. ABSTENTION. An abstention shall not be counted as a vote. Moreover, a member who abstains shall be required to explain why he abstained. The basis for the abstention may only be one of the following: (a) the member has a conflicting interest on the question at hand such a pecuniary interest, or filial or professional ties with a party concerned, or (c) failure to participate in any of the proceedings of the Sanggunian regarding the said matter which prevents him from making a an opinion thereon. No other reason may be used as a ground to abstain.

SECTION 104. RECORDING OF VOTES. All votes and abstentions—as well as the reasons for such votes or abstention—shall be recorded by the Sanggunian Secretariat and published on the website of the Sanggunian. The voting history of each member of the council shall be published in the said website on a monthly and annual basis.

SECTION 105. EXPLANATION OF VOTE. - A member may explain his vote in not more than three minutes.

SECTION 106. NO INTERRUPTION DURING VOTING; EXCEPTION. - The voting shall not be interrupted except on a question of quorum.

SECTION 107. TIE VOTE. - In case of a tie, the Presiding Officer shall vote. A tie on an appeal from the ruling of the Chair sustains the decision of the Chair. A vote of unanimity shall be entered if there is no objection from the members there being a quorum.

RULE XVI
RECONSIDERATION

SECTION 108. WHO MAY VOTE; PROCEDURE; EXCEPTIONS. - When a proposed ordinance or resolution, report or motion is adopted or lost, a member who voted with the majority may move for its reconsideration on the same or succeeding session day. The motion shall take precedence over all other questions, except a motion to adjourn a question of privilege, and a point of order.

SECTION 109. LIMITATIONS. - No proposed ordinance, resolution, memorial or petition recommitted to a committee or ordered to be archived shall be brought back to the Sanggunian on a motion to reconsider.

RULE XVII
MOTIONS AND THEIR PRECEDENCE

SECTION 110. RECORDING OF MOTION. - Every motion shall be entered in the Journal with the name of the member making it unless it is withdrawn on the same day.

SECTION 111. READING AND WITHDRAWAL OF MOTIONS. - The Presiding Officer shall state the motion or, if in writing, shall cause it to be read by the Secretary to the Sanggunian before being debated. A motion may be withdrawn any time before its approval.

SECTION 112. PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS. - When any matter is under debate, no motion shall be entertained except to adjourn (tapisin ang session), raise a point of order (Ipaalala sa kapulungan na hindi ayon sa Internal Rules ang ginagawa o sinasabi ng isang kasapi), raise a question of privilege (Isang katanungan ukol sa mga karapatan at pribilehiyo ng Sanggunian o ng sinuman sa mga kasapi nito gaya ng paghini ng recess, pakiusap na lakasan ang bases ng nagasaalan, o kaya ay ipaulit ang isang kasagutan), declare a recess (pansamantalahang paghinto ng sesyon sa maikling panahon), lay on the table (pagususulong ng isang mosyon upang ito ay pagbatohan) or postpone to a day certain (pagpapaliban ng isang mosyon o usapan sa ibang araw dahil sa kakulangan sa oras) which motions shall be decided without debate, or to refer, amend or postpone indefinitely (which motions shall be decided subject to the five-minute rule). Said motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order. After a motion to postpone to any day certain, refer to postpone indefinitely is lost, it shall not again be allowed on the same day.

SECTION 113. AMENDMENTS. - When any matter is under consideration, a motion to amend and a further motion to amend the amendatory motion shall be in order.

It shall also be in order to move for amendment by substitution, but said motion shall not be voted upon until the text of the original matter is perfected. Any of said amendments may be withdrawn before a vote is had thereon.

No motion to amend a proposed ordinance or resolution shall be entertained on third reading.

SECTION 114. RIDER PROHIBITED. No motion or proposition on a subject matter different from that under consideration shall be allowed under the guise of an amendment.

SECTION 115. ONE MOTION FOR ONE SUBJECT MATTER. - No motion shall cover more than one subject matter unless the additional matter is germane or related to the main subject matter.

SECTION 116. MOTION TO STRIKE AND INSERT. - A motion to strike (pagtatanggal ng isang komento o probisyon ng isang resolusyon o ordinansa sa records ng sesyon) and insert (isang mosyon na nagsisingit ng isang komento o probisyon bilang kahalili ng tinanggali na komento o probisyon) is indivisible (buo at hindi maaaring hatin/nangangahulugan na hindi maaaring hatin ang isang "motion to strike and insert"). The loss of a pure motion to strike shall not preclude an amendment or a motion to strike and insert (nangangahulugan na ang disapproval ng motion to strike ay hindi hadlang upang maaprubahan ang isang motion to insert).

SECTION 117. AMENDMENT OF TITLE. - Amendments to the title of a proposed ordinance or resolution shall be in order only after the text thereof has been perfected. Amendments to the title shall be decided without debate.

SECTION 118. VOTE ON PAPER OBJECTED TO. A motion to read a paper other than that which the Sanggunian is called to vote upon shall be voted upon without debate.

SECTION 119. POINT OF ORDER: PRECEDENCE. - A motion to read any part of the rules is equivalent to a point or order and takes precedence over any motion other than to adjourn (ang isang mosyon na nakikiusap na basahin ang bahagi ng internal Rules na may relasyon sa delibersasyon ay bibigyan ng pahalaga sa ibabaw ng kahit na anong uri ng mosyon maliban sa motion to adjourn).

RULE XVIII
QUESTIONS OF PRIVILEGE

SECTION 120. DEFINITION. - Questions of privilege are those affecting the duties, conduct, rights, privileges, dignity, integrity or reputation of the Sanggunian or of its members, collectively or individually.

SECTION 121. PRECEDEENCE. - Subject to the ten-minute rule, questions of privilege shall have precedence over all other questions, except a motion to adjourn and a point of order.

RULE XIX
PRIVILEGED MOTION

SECTION 122. DEFINITION AND PRECEDENCE. - A privileged motion pertains to a subject matter, which, under the rules, takes precedence over others. The order of precedence of privilege motions is determined in each case by the Rules.

RULE XX
SUSPENSION OF THE RULES

SECTION 123. WHO CAN MOVE. - Only the Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, or Members of the Committee on Rules, Privileges, Laws & Ordinances can move for the suspension of the rules.

SECTION 124. VOTE REQUIRED. - No rule shall be suspended except by a vote of majority of all the members of the Sanggunian constituting a quorum.

SECTION 125. LIMITATIONS - Only proposed Resolutions or Ordinances that are urgent, may be considered during the suspension of the rules. A proposed Resolution or Ordinance is urgent if the consideration of the same demands immediate attention where time is of the essence.

SECTION 126. URGENT ORDINANCES - Unless the City Mayor or, in the case of proposed ordinances for the temporary closure to motor traffic of City Streets, roads or highways or portions thereof, the City Vice Mayor has certified to the necessity of its immediate enactment, no proposed Ordinance shall be considered during the suspension of the Rules.

SECTION 127. PROCEDURE - a. Proposed resolutions for consideration under suspended rules shall be made in writing and duly signed by their author or authors and submitted to the Sanggunian Secretary, copies of which shall be furnished to all the members present;

b. The Sangguniang Secretary shall determine whether the proposed resolution is urgent which shall be then considered when the Rules are suspended. Should the Sangguniang Secretary determine that the consideration of the proposed resolution is not urgent, but the proponent insists otherwise, the Sangguniang Secretary shall immediately have the question of whether or not the consideration of the proposed resolution is urgent submitted for consideration by the Sangguniang, which question shall immediately be decided without debate by a majority vote, there being two-thirds of all the members present constituting a quorum;

c. Before the question is voted upon, however, the proponent may be allowed within an unextendible period of three (3) minutes to defend the urgency of the consideration of the proposed measure.

SECTION 128. INTERRUPTION OF MOTION. - When a motion to suspend the rules is pending, one motion to adjourn may be entertained. If the latter is lost, no similar motion shall be entertained until the vote is taken on the motion to suspend.

SECTION 129. DEBATE; EFFECT OF SUSPENSION. - A motion to suspend the rules for the passage of a measure may be debated for thirty minutes, which shall be divided equally between those in favor and those against. A debate is, however, unnecessary if the members unanimously support the motion.

If the Sangguniang votes to suspend the rules, it shall forthwith proceed to consider the measure. A majority vote of all the members of the Sangguniang shall be necessary for the passage of said measure.

SECTION 130. REINSTAMENT OF THE RULES. - The Rules must be reinstated by means of a motion before the end of the session. The motion needs only be seconded in order to be approved. If no motion to reinstate is made, the Presiding Officer shall reinstate the Rules before the end of the session.

RULE XXI
DISCIPLINE

SECTION 131. DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS. - Upon recommendation of the Committee on Ethics and Good Government, the Sanggunian
Republic of the Philippines

RULE XXII
UNFINISHED BUSINESS

SECTION 132. RESUMPTION OF UNFINISHED BUSINESS. - The unfinished business at the end of a session shall be resumed at the commencement of the next session as if no adjournment has taken place.

All pending matters and proceedings shall terminate upon the expiration of the term of the Sanggunian and the records pertaining thereto delivered to the Archives within fifteen days after such expiration.

RULE XXIII
PAPERS

SECTION 133. DELIVERY OF PAPERS TO ARCHIVES. - All papers and records relating to the completed business of the Sanggunian shall be delivered to, kept by and preserved in the Archives.

SECTION 134. DUTY OF SECRETARIES OF COMMITTEES. - Secretaries of committees or their equivalent personnel shall, within seven days after the enactment of ordinances or joint resolutions, and fifteen days after final adjournment of the Sanggunian, deliver to the archives all ordinances, resolutions, petitions and other papers referred to their respective committees together with the records of proceedings, reports of investigations conducted, and all evidence taken by such committees.

If the secretary of a committee fails or neglect to comply with this rule, the Secretary to the Sanggunian shall, within seven days thereafter, take into custody all such papers. Disciplinary action may be taken against the erring employee.

SECTION 135. RECORDS AND BOOKS OPEN TO PUBLIC. - The records and books of accounts of the Sanggunian shall be preserved and be open to the public in accordance with law, and such books shall be available for audit by the Commission on Audit.
