(OCWs) or those with existing work contract comprised 96.8% of the total OFWs while the 3.2% are those who worked overseas without contract;

WHEREAS, there are various government agencies tasked to handle different concerns of OFWs which often lead to confusion among the OFWs since there's no one stop shop agency to meet their varying concerns;

WHEREAS, the City of Bacoor recognizes the indispensable role of the LGU in providing assistance and services to its OFWs constituents, including their families which is one of the priority of the local chief executive;

WHEREAS, having to work abroad and away from their families have brought about better standard of living, financial comfort and economic stability to our OFWs, not to mention personal enrichment thru their experiences abroad, technology and knowledge transfer and they have also benefitted the country in terms of the business, their remittances have brought in to the economy, also investments in real estate and income in terms of the local business of their families funded through their remittances;

WHEREAS, however, it has also been observed that the families left behind of our OFWs, including those living in the City of Bacoor are experiencing psycho-social costs of migration like relationships estrangement, family break-up, communication gap, infidelities, extra-marital relationships, teenage pregnancy and marriage, juvenile delinquency, drug dependency, related to the culture of dependency to remittances;

WHEREAS, our OFWs are often last to be hired and first to be fired and their employment relationship are frequently sub-standard, and located in poorly-regulated sector or activities, which mostly results to illegal recruitment, job switching, cases of sexual and physical abuse and maltreatment, racial discrimination, exploitation, poor working conditions, non-payment of salaries, trafficking, serious injuries and even death;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 8042, otherwise known as "The Migrant Workers and Overseas Filipinos Act of 1995", as amended by Republic Act No. 10022, recognizes
