WHEREAS, medieval cities were once protected by massive walls that guests could only enter through fortified gates with the use of a special key. This is the origin of the modern practice of handing ceremonial keys to individuals who have given special services to a city.

WHEREAS, the City of Bacoor, Cavite has entered into several Twin Sister Agreements and Local Government Unit Partnership Agreements over the years and the signing of the said contracts have been marked by nothing except the legal instruments on which the said agreements have been written.

WHEREAS, the formal creation of an award that will memorialize the forging of ties between the City of Bacoor and other cities all over the world will show how seriously Bacooreños consider the agreements that its elected leaders enter into and how hospitable they are to residents of cities with special relationships with Bacoor. By so doing, it is hoped that the same degree of hospitality shall be bestowed upon Bacooreños by the elected leaders of the said cities.

Section 3. Creation of the Bacoor Ceremonial Key Award. The Bacoor Ceremonial Key Award (the "Bacoor Ceremonial Key") is hereby created. When conferred, the Bacoor Ceremonial Key shall be mounted on a certificate evidencing the agreement that was signed by the City Mayor and by the Mayor who shall receive the award in commemoration of the twin city relationship mentioned above. The said design may be revised as the Mayor — with the approval of the Sangguniang Panlungsod by way of Resolution — deems fit.

Section 4. Conferment of the Bacoor Ceremonial Key.
