WHEREAS, Gen. Edelberto Evangelista was a European educated civil engineer who was born in Manila on 24 February 1862. He was arrested by the Spaniards for being in possession of the writings of Dr. Jose Rizal but he was able to escape prison and he joined the Philippine revolutionary forces under Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo.

WHEREAS, despite not being a native born Caviteño, Evangelista saw action in various battles fought in Cavite including the town of Bacoor where he designed and built several fortifications that helped the Katipuneros become victorious against the colonial Spanish forces.

WHEREAS, on 17 February 1897, Evangelista died during the Battle of Zapote Bridge in Bacoor, Cavite while supervising the maintenance and repair of the fortifications that he built. He died in the service of Bacoor — a town he could not then consider his home.

WHEREAS, the dedication and bravery exhibited by Gen. Evangelista should serve as an inspiration to every Filipino. His exploits should be remembered constantly by teaching them to the young and by giving due recognition to modern-day Filipinos who share the same traits as Gen. Evangelista: service of the common good, excellence, bravery, and hard work.

WHEREAS, Section 16 of Republic Act No. 7160 ("the Local Government Code of 1991") provides in part that local government units shall ensure and support, among other things, the preservation and enrichment of culture, promote health and safety, enhance the right of the people to a balanced ecology, encourage and support the development of appropriate and self-reliant scientific and technological capabilities, improve public morals, enhance economic prosperity and social justice, promote full employment among their residents, maintain peace and order, and preserve the comfort and convenience of their inhabitants.

WHEREAS, the creation of an award that gives due recognition to individuals regardless of whether they hail from Bacoor or not who have done exemplary service, work or performance in public service, sports, arts, science and other fields of human endeavor for the benefit of the City of Bacoor, Cavite will help keep the memory and legacy of Gen. Evangelista alive.

NOW THEREFORE, be it ordained by the 5th Sangguniang Panlungsod of the City of Bacoor, Cavite THAT:

SECTION 1. Creation of the Gen. Edilberto Evangelista Award. The Gen. Edilberto Evangelista Award is hereby created and shall be conferred upon any individual — whether residing in the City of Bacoor, Cavite or not — who have done exemplary work, service, or performance in the fields of public service, sports, arts, the sciences, and other fields of human endeavor that benefited or honored the City of Bacoor or the Philippines.

SECTION 2. Conferment of Award. The said award shall be conferred by the City Mayor once every two years upon the recommendation of a selection committee to be comprised by the following:
