shall be imprisoned for not more than six (6) months or be required to pay a fine of not more than Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PHP 2,500.00) or both.

- b. Any developer, project proponent, or contractor who violates this Ordinance shall be required to pay a fine of not more than Three Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PHP 3,500.00) for every violation of any provision hereof. Provided that, should the nature of the violation consist of non-payment or refusal to pay taxes or city fees or the selling of lots without the necessary development permit, the fine to be imposed upon the developer shall be multiplied by the number of houses already built or sold, or the number of square meters involved in the reclamation of the development project. Provided, further that should the nature of the violation consist of the development of a project without the necessary permit, a fine of Three Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PHP 3,500.00) for every one hundred (100) square meters of land comprising the development project shall be imposed upon the developer.
- c. Aside from the foregoing penalties, the City Mayor is hereby empowered to revoke any development permit already granted, disapprove any application for a development permit by any developer found to have violated any provision hereof, or revoke any permit issued by the city government.
- d. Any City Government employee who issues any permit in favor of any person despite the latter's violation of this Ordinance or non-compliance herewith shall be subjected to the appropriate administrative penalty.
- e. The City Mayor may also declare a developer as blacklisted as a consequence of its violations of any provision of this ordinance, provided that such declaration may be lifted upon correction of the violation.

Section 5. Separability Clause. Any provision of this Ordinance found void by a court of competent jurisdiction shall not affect the rest of this Ordinance not affected by the said judicial finding of invalidity.
