3.2. The powers of the Council are as follows:

(a) Collect a membership fee of not more than P100.00 per year from the members of all women's organizations accredited by the Sangguniang Panlungsod. The said membership fee shall be paid not later than the last working day of January of each year following the approval of this ordinance.

(b) Open a bank account where funds collected from members and proceeds from fund raising projects shall be deposited.

(c) Call a general assembly of all its members on any day of March following the approval of this Ordinance in celebration of the National Women's Month and for the holding of the election of its federation officers.

(d) Hold fund raising events for the purpose of financing its various projects aimed at promoting women's welfare and development. Provided that: the holding of the said events as well as the manner by which the funds raised in such events shall be used must be in accordance with applicable laws and city ordinances.

(e) Discipline its members in accordance with its by-laws and with pertinent laws and city ordinances; and

(f) Exercise such other powers as may be necessary in order to promote the welfare and development of women residing in the City of Bacoor and ensure the implementation of all laws and applicable city ordinances concerning women. Provided that: all powers exercised by any of the officers of the federation must be with the written approval of at least a majority of its officers by way of a resolution duly certified by its Council President and Secretary.

the Council shall be Filipinos, of legal age, residing in the City of Bacoor, Cavite and a member or officer of any of the women's organizations duly accredited by the Sangguniang Panlungsod. They shall be elected by majority of the members of the various women's organizations duly accredited by the Sangguniang Panlungsod during the annual general assembly of the Council and shall have a term of two (2) years. They shall not be allowed to serve two (2) successive terms in order to give other members a chance to lead the Council.

Section 5. City Government Support. The City Government may grant financial assistance to the Council in support of its programs pertaining to gender equality, women empowerment and development, and to the protection of women and children from all forms of abuse subject to availability of funds and in strict compliance with applicable laws and government regulations.

Section 6. Mandatory Joining. The members of all women's organizations duly accredited by the Sangguniang Panlungsod are mandated to join the Council as a prerequisite for such accreditation. The failure or refusal of any of the said women's organizations to join the Council by way of a resolution signed by at least a majority of its officers within ten (10) working days from the time they were notified in writing by the Sangguniang Panlungsod shall result in the revocation of their accreditation, the denial of their application for accreditation or of the renewal of the said accreditation, the disqualification of the said organizations from receiving any financial support from the City Government, and from sending representatives to all meetings, fora, symposiums, hearings, and other activities called or spearheaded by the City Government, the Sangguniang Panlungsod, the City Development Council, the Local School Board, and other local councils where representation and participation of women are required by law.

Section 7. Repeal. All ordinances, executive orders, or memoranda inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed or modified accordingly.
